

19960917.137 Schoolhouse Lane Acceptance

BORO OF MILLVILLE
COLUMBIA COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

ORDINANCE NO. 19960917.137 Schoolhouse Lane

WHEREAS, there exists within the Boro of Millville a certain street which constitutes an "opened street" within the meaning of Section 1701(2) of the Boro Code (53 P.S. Section 46701(2)), as depicted on the plan of said alley attached hereto and incorporated herein; and

WHEREAS, said street has not been laid out on the Boro plan or on the plan of a real estate development, but does intersect with Chestnut Street and is used as a public passageway; and

WHEREAS, the Boro Council is desirous of accepting said alley in order that such acceptance shall have the same effect as opening the street as a public street of the Boro, in accordance with Section 1734 of the Boro Code (53 P.S. Section 46734); and

WHEREAS, all the owners of the properties abutting said alley have given their approval of, and agreement with the action hereby taken by the Boro Council;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Council of the Boro of Millville hereby ordains as follows:

1. Acceptance of Street. All of that portion of a certain street situate within the Boro of Millville, more fully and particularly described and shown on the description and plan prepared by Construction Engineering, Inc. dated April 13, 1994 attached hereto and incorporated herein along with a copy of a letter to James & Mihalik setting forth the background, is hereby accepted by the Boro Council. with the effect that it shall henceforth be an opened and public street of the Boro of Millville.
2. Name of Street. The street hereby accepted shall bear the name and shall be known as "Schoolhouse Lane." The Boro Engineer shall mark the Boro maps accordingly.

ORDAINED and ENACTED this 17th day of September, 1996
